Day of Remembrance & Service

Thursday, September 11 • 11 a.m. • FSU College of Law

In recognition of September 11, Leon County Government will lead several community service housing restoration projects. These projects will culminate in a Day of Service & Remembrance Ceremony at the Florida State University College of Law, located at 425 W. Jefferson St. Attendees of the ceremony will be asked to write encouraging letters to service members overseas, donate blood and learn how to save a life through first aid training provided by Leon County Emergency Medical Services.

Beginning at 11 a.m., Leon County Government will lead the fourth annual Day of Remembrance & Service Ceremony, with County Commission Chairman Kristin Dozier scheduled to provide remarks. The ceremony will also include the second annual presentation of Holland & Knight's Glenn J. Winuk Humanitarian Award, presented by Bob Martinez, former Governor of Florida.

September 11 is now the nation's largest single day of charitable engagement. Last year, a record 47 million people observed September 11 by engaging in service projects nationwide. Leon County and its community partners encourage residents and neighbors to remember the service of others by volunteering on this day, and beyond.

LAFAYETTE STREET ROADWAY NOW OPEN

Leon County Government is pleased to announce that the Lafayette Street roadway east and west of Magnolia Drive is now open.

While some work will continue over the next few months, right now businesses, residents and shoppers can enjoy the newly constructed roadway.

Nobody likes road detours and the inconvenience of roadway construction, but it's a necessary part of making our community a better place to live, work and play. And even while the roadway is open, Leon County Government will continue to make significant improvements to Lafayette Street. Please enjoy the new roadway as improvements continue.
